RETIRED EDUCATOR RECEIVES RAIMONDO AWARD

The committee honored retired educator Ruth Lynch with the Beverly Nickell Raimondo Leadership Award. This award recognizes individuals who have demonstrated exceptional leadership in enhancing student achievement in Kentucky.

Lynch has been a tireless advocate for student success, focusing her efforts on recruiting more teachers of color to return and serve within her local public school system in Christian County. Her dedication and leadership have made a significant impact on the community, fostering a more inclusive and supportive educational environment.
